Explore Task	Task Description	Teammate in Charge
Step Director	You will read the instructions for each step aloud to your team. It is your responsibility to make sure that the team is following directions and understands each step.
Materials Gatherer	You will gather all the materials that you need for this activity. Some materials you will not need until later steps. You will also put the materials back once you are through using them in the activity.
Sketcher/ Labeler	You are the lead sketcher and labeler. You may draw the sketch with labels on a piece of paper to display for your class. But, you also must make sure that everyone on the team has drawn the sketch in their notebooks and has labeled it properly.
Recorder (observations)	You are in charge of recording observations. You will write down detailed observations during your investigation. You must also make sure that each member on the team writes these observations down, too. You will answer questions that others have about the observations and lead discussions about observations.
Step 7: Equipment Specialist (skewer)	Your job is to be in charge of the skewer in Step 7. You must make sure everyone on the team uses the skewer properly and follows all safety rules and the rules that your teacher gives you. You will make sure that everyone on the team gets a chance to use the skewer to learn more about what is in the box.
Step 7: Investigation Designer	In Step 7, your team must design a simple investigation using a new piece of equipment. Your job is to lead the discussion your team has to decide on this procedure. Then you will be in charge of recording the final procedure steps and getting your teacher's approval. You must also make sure that the rest of your team has the procedure written in their notebooks.
Step 11: Presentation leader	You are in charge of the presentation that your team will do in Step 11. This means that you will make sure everyone is involved in the planning and has a part in the presentation. You will make sure that the team agrees on what to present and who will do each part of the presentation.
