

Diabetes Awareness Day Rubric

Higher levels of performance

Weight	Task	Best	Good	Needs improvement
15%	Describe why it is important for others to know about diabetes.	I clearly explained why others should know about diabetes.	I gave some reasons for why others should know about diabetes, but I was not clear on all the reasons.	I provided very little clear information about why others should know about diabetes.
10%	List risk factors for diabetes.	I explained at least 3 risk factors for diabetes.	I explained 2 risk factors for diabetes.	I explained 1 risk factor for diabetes.
25%	Explain why the Diabetes Walk should be included as a start to preventing diabetes.	I was clear about how the Diabetes Walk relates to diabetes and why it is a start to preventing diabetes.	I provided reasons for having the Diabetes Walk, but they do not clearly relate to diabetes.	I provided confusing information about how the Diabetes Walk relates to diabetes.
10%	Create a meal plan that is healthy for all people, including people with diabetes.	I created a meal plan that is healthy for all people.	I created a meal plan that is missing some important ideas about what is healthy for all people.	I created a meal plan that is not appropriate for all people.
15%	Describe what makes a meal good for a person with diabetes.	I clearly explained all the parts of my meal and how they relate to a person with diabetes.	I explained some of the parts of my meal and how they relate to a person with diabetes.	I explained the parts of my meal, but I may not have related them to diabetes.
25%	Explain other activities that should be included in the Diabetes Awareness Day.	I clearly explained my choices for 3 other activities to be included in my awareness day.	I clearly explained 2 of my choices for activities to be included in my awareness day.	I clearly explained 1 of my choices for activities to be included in my awareness day.