

Health

Card #1

A girl seems to be really sick and we aren't sure why. We notice she has symptoms in all different parts of her body.

Card #3

Some food seems to disappear by the time it reaches the large intestine.

Card #5

What happens to the different substances in food as it travels through the digestive system?

Card #7

Body systems are connected to each other.

Card #9

The digestive system is made up of different parts called organs.

Card #2

A child's endoscopy report provides evidence that the intestine of a healthy person looks different from the intestine of an unhealthy person.

Card #4

Chemical reactions that occur in the mouth break down some types of complex carbohydrates.

Card #6

A healthy intestine wall is folded back and forth forming villi.

Card #8

When scientists look at images of weight loss over time, it looks like the fat is disappearing.

Card #10

